WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

WHITE PLAINS.

Transfer Clerk I. Sumner Burnstine, of the Surrogate's Court, yesterday computed the transfer tax on the estate of Anna Fogerty. The case is a pe-culiar one, from the fact that the testatrix for a number of years had been the inmate of several charitable institutions in this State. From fifteen to twenty years ago Anna Fogerty was a well-known sharacter in the city of Yonkers, where she was character in the city of Yonkers, where she was known as "Auntie Gray." She was eccentric and a most devout attendant at all the services of the Catholic Church, to which denomination she belonged. About the year 1881 she was found to be in seemingly destitute circumstances, and was commit-ted by Charity Commissioner Rayner to the County Poorhouse, in East View. She stayed there a while and then left unceremoniously, only to turn up in Tarrytown, from which place she was committed to Tarrytown, from which place she was committed to the State Insane Asylum in Poughkeepsie. She was either discharged from the asylum or left on her own account, for in 1887 she was an inmate of the Willard Hospital, in Binghamton, where she died December 13 of that year. In all these institutions her name appears upon the books as Anna Gray, and corresquently her nearest relatives, consisting of and consequently her nearest relatives, consisting of three nephews, had lest track of her from the time three nephews, had lost track of her from the thin-she first left Yonkers. In her residence in Yonkers, it now appears, she left for safe-keeping a bank book in the custody of ex-City Judge Francis X. Donoghue, which was filed away and in time forgotten. Recently the Rev. A. A. Lings, dean of the Catholic Church, in looking over his papers, found a will executed by Anna Fogerty, bequeathing certain moneys in the Yonkers Savings Bank to her three moneys in the Yonkers Savings Bank to her three nephews. Father Lings took the will to Judge Don-oghus, who found the bank book after a search among his papers. The book showed that Anna Fogerty had money to the amount of $1,423.84 to her credit in the bank. A search was then made for the testatrix, and was unsuccessful until it was found that Anna Fogerty had been committed to the poorhouse under the name of Anna Gray, and then she was traced through the several institutions already named to the Willard Asylum, where she had died named to the Willard Asylum, where she had deen nearly ten years before. The estate will be divided smong the three nephews, Edward F. Fogerty, of Bankard-ave., Newburg, William Fogerty, of Whitefield, Loughmoore, Templemoore, Ireland, Jeremiah Fogerty, Drom, Templemoore, Ireland.

YONKERS.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Health, held last week, Health Officer Garret N Banker made an earnest appeal in his report for the ap-pointment of a milk inspector. Speaking of the necessity for such an officer, he said "it was probable that examination of the various cow stable; from which our milk supply is derived would reveal the fact that, in the majority of instances, every method had been adopted that would in any way increuse the product of milk, regardless of the health of the animals. Provision should be made for placing all dairy stables from which milk comes into this city under the supervision of the Health Department. An inspector should be appointed, and every cow should be examined, in order to guard against taint in the milk." Acting on the advice of the Health Officer, the Board has appointed Clark A. Sloane as milk inspector, and he will begin the duties of his office on June 1. Mr. Sloane for seven years has been head clerk for George B. Wray in his Getty Square drugstore.

The church was profusely decorated with flags and stacks of arms, and the sermon of the Rev. Frank M. Scudder was a soul-stirring one, especially when he entered into the spirit of the battlefield and pletured the events of the war. In the evening the post attended services in the Olin Methodist Episcopal Church, Williamsbridge, under the escort of the organizations previously mentioned. A feature of the evening was that Mayor Edson Lewis accompanied the post to the services and marched in the ranks. While not a soldier veteran, he has often said that a sight of the veterans is a gladsome one to him, and that his only regret is that he cannot wear a Grand Army button by right of service. The Rev. Dr. Paulson, who served as chaplain throughout the war, delivered a stirring sermon.

Professor Gillette, of the Hartford Theological Seminary, substituted for his old classmate, the Rev. Charles Stoddard Lane, in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday. LITTLE HAVANA TOBACCO BOUGHT.

BELIEF THAT DOMESTIC GRADES WILL TAKE THE PLACE OF MUCH OF IT-RETALIATION TO BE PROPOSED TO-MORROW NIGHT.

Apprehension was manifested in an increased detree among the tobacco dealers of the city yesterday by the prospect of an unprecedented scarcity in clear Havana lines as a result of the Spanish de cree to be enforced in Cuba to-day, prohibiting the exportation of leaf tobacco to the United States. The decree was issued ten days ago, and the interim has been designated as a period of grace in which all stock contracted for in Cuba could be shi but hereafter no vessel is to be allowed to sail from Cuban waters with the native leaf tobacco on board. In the eleventh hour of this ten days' grace the efforts of New-York manufacturers to purchase as much leaf tobacco as possible were redoubled, and the wires to Key West were kept busy yesterday with messages urging agents to exert every influence in their power to negotiate purchases.

From the advices of the steamship companie and the reports of the dealers themselves, however, little has been accomplished in the way of securing unusually large consignments of tobacco-in the last days of grace, it was said, and the apprehension of manufacturers that there will be an unparalleled scarcity of the best grades of tobacco was apparent more than ever.

The latest advices from Cuba to the tobacco dealers yesterday said that the most desirable goods were in the hands of people who have means and are well able to hold the stock unless they receive offers of fancy prices which they demand. About 2,300 bales of old Demedios, it was said, were held by five Cubans, and of this lot only about 1,500 bales were worthy of notice, as 700 of them were regarded as 100 light in flavor for the United States. Of old Vueltas, another desirable stock, there were none to be had, as they have all been picked up by Havana manufacturers. Of semi-Vueltas there were about 750 bales, high in price, but exceedingly mild in flavor, and not sure to burn. With the prospects of a scarcit; in Havana goods, prices of high-grade cigars are expected to advance ecording to the opinions expressed by dealers yes terday. There are manufacturers, however, who assert that they have enough leaf tobacco on hand to supply their trade for six months, and some declare that they have sufficient for even a year or longer. What the disposition will be to take advantage of a scarcity in the market to increase prices is, as yet, speculative.

The feeling of retailation has grown, and many repeated their declarations yesterday that action has been declarations.

should be taken by Congress to prohibit the im-portation of cigars and other manufactured tobacco from Cuba, a move which would, it was argued, of the major part of his revenue.

of the major part of his revenue.

The mass-meeting of cigar manufacturers and tobacco dealers and workers will be held to-morrownight at Central Hall, in Third-ave., between One-hundredand fifthard One-hundred-and-sixthats, when a protiest is to be made against the action of General Weytee, who have the probabilities doesn't be. ler, who issued the prohibition decree. The meet-ing will be held under the auspices of the American Retaliation League, of which Samuel Shim is pres-Retaliation League, of which Samuel Shim is president. Congressman Philip B. Low is expected to be among the speakers. It was proposed to have him introduce a bill placing a prohibitive duty on Cuban eigars and manufactured tobacco.

The cutting off of the leaf tobacco from Cuba, which enters so largely into the manufacture of eigars in this city, giving employment to thousands, has created alarm among the tobacco workers here, who see their vocation disappearing. President Shim said: "In two months, when the present supply of leaf tobacco is exhausted, there will be 55.00 people thrown out of work."

Wholesale dealers, however, are hopeful for the domestic crop as promising a substitute for the Havana leaf when the time comes, if it does, that all the imported cigars will so up in smoke. The Havana leaf when the time come, if it does that all the imported cigars will go up in smoke. The Havana seed planted in the Western States, and in Connecticut, it is reported, has produced a satisfactory quality of tobacco, which may yet equal in flavor the Cuban product, when the highest cultivation is attained torogal favorable conditions in climate and soil.

NEW MOTOR FOR STREETCARS.

SUCCESSFUL EXPERIMENTS, WITH COMPRESSE AIR-MR. WHITNEY FAVORABLE TO IT.

Special attention is being devoted by officials of Metropolitan Traction Company to the testing of the compressed air motor for streetcars, and yeaterday President Vreeland went away early from his office on an inspection, which, it was reported, had reference to arrangements for beginning ex-periments with the new system in a few weeks on the Lenox-ave, line, which at present is operated by the underground trolley, Officials expressed much confidence in the success of the motor, and favorable comment was made yesterday, particularly with regard to the lessened cost of operating cars by the substitution of compressed air for the cable and trolley. When the pos sibility of a corresponding decrease in the rate charged to passengers was suggested, however, there was no opinion expressed. Orders have been sent to a car manufacturing

AS INNOCENT AS OTHER LAMBS.

THE COMPLAINT AGAINST THE ACTORS CLUB DISMISSED.

Contrary to expectation the Police Court yesterday took a humane, poetical and merciful view of the alleged offences of the stage Lambs who are folded in West Thirty-first-st. The case which was brought against them for making too much noise was practically decided by the good old formula of "not guilty, but don't do it again." Such boisterousness on the part of lambs as was alleged to have characterized these is certainly not in accord with the general understanding of natural history. The only previous case on record, in fact, of a tamb being habitually noisy is that which is found in an being habitually noisy is that old college song which used to say:

Mary had a little lamb, Its fleece was white as snow. Shouting the battle-gry of freedom. And everywhere that Mary went The lamb was sure to go. Shouting the battle-gry of freedom.

The complaint against the Lambs, of Thirty-firstst., would, if proved, have been more serious than this, for it was a complaint of noise unmitigated by any element of patriotism.

Actors and dramatic authors were present in good umbers in Jefferson Market Court yesterday when the officers and directors of the Lambs Club were summoned to court to answer the charge preferred against them by E. R. Patrick, of No. 25 West Thirty-first-st., that the club was a public nutsance. Mr. Patrick is the proprietor of a fashionable boarding-Patrick is the proprietor of a fashionable boarding-house, and the pasture of the Lambs is at No. 26 West Thirty-first-st. directly opposite. Ten days ago Mr. Patrick applied to the Court for a summons, as he said that the club was raising merriment at unseemly hours of the night and morning, and he was losing his boarders thereby.

A number of witnesses for the defence satisfied Magistrate Simms that the club was not a nuisance, and he dismissed the case.

LEASE OF THE GARDEN THEATRE.

MR. PALMER ASKS THE DIRECTORS TO LET HIM GIVE IT UP.

It was reported yesterday that A. M. Palmer had asked the directors of the Madison Square Garden to take the lease of the Garden Theatre off his hands and they had agreed to do so. A message received by The Tribune from Mr. Palmer, who was at his home in Stamford, last night, said that he had made an offer of his lease to the directors, but that they had not yet accepted it. He had been willing to of the theatre any time in the last two years, but as yet no definit; arrangement had been Mr. Palmer has managed the Garden Theatre for three seasons, having succeeded T. Henry French, who had had charge of it since it was opened, in who had had charge of it since it was opened, in the autumn of 1890. Mr. Paimer took charge of it in November, 1893, and his first attraction was E. S. Williard, who opened in 'The Professor's Love Story,'' Soon after that the extravaganza, '1892, 'was transferred from Paimer's Theatre to the Garden and had a long run. The next season was chiefly taken up by another extravaganza, 'Little Christopler'. The most conspicuous financial success of Mr Palmer's tonardy of the Garden Theatre was 'Triby,' which had a long run last spring and summer and a revival in the course of the season that has just passed. The last season has been rather an unfortunate one, as it has been indeed, for most theatres. 'A Sing Party' was a conspicuous fallure at the sheginning of it, and the house has been closed for two or three short periods. Its last attraction was "His Absent Boy," which was understood to be a moderate success and was withdrawn only a few days ago.

The Garden has generally been regarded as a forumate and successful theatre, both before Mr Palmer took charge of it and afterward, and many notable engagements have been played in it.
